

The Bears continue their hot start to the season

Spartans 38 Huskies 22

The Girls Bantam League at Como Park Elementary started with an offensive showcase between the Spartans (1-2) and the Huskies (0-3). The Spartans took an 18-14 lead into the half and never looked back. The Spartans aggressive offensive play and their 20 second half points was just what they needed for the win.

The Spartans were able to get a total team effort on the offensive side. Gabriella Czech and Grace Jachimiak led the way 14 and 12 points. Madison Handley had eight points. Wilhemina Weidman scored four points in the victory.

The Huskies scoring for the day was led by Allie Bashor and her eight points. Erica Kurek and Julia Benham helped out with six points apiece. Abigayle Meegan chipped in with two points in the defeat.

Bears 26 Bulldogs 10

In the second Girls Bantam league game of the day the unbeaten Bears (3-0) handed the Bulldogs (2-1). The Bears and Bulldogs came into this game tied for 1st place. The Bears were able to prevail with a 26 to 10 win over the Bulldogs for sole possession of first place.

The Bears used scoring from six different players to pull out the win. Abbie Benham's game high ten points led the way for the Bears. Cassidy Kavathas had six points. Ava Achtyl, Amelia Powers and Weidman contributed with two points.

The Bulldogs scoring was led by Madison Maciag's eight points. Caroline Helenbrook netted two points in the Bulldogs loss.

Grizzlies 41 Thunder 30

The first Boys Midget Conference game was a battle between two unbeaten teams. The Grizzlies (3-0) used an eight point run late in the 2nd half to close out the Thunder (2-1) 41 to 31. The Grizzlies used stellar play on both ends of the floor for their third victory of the season.

The Grizzlies were led by Lucas Jachimiak's game high 13 points. Connor Mahony added 10 points. Jacob Sebastian threw in eight points. Jacob Andolina and Collin Rice meshed for four points apiece. Adam Devic scored two points in the Grizzlies victory.

The tandem of Jason Mansell and Mawell Molino contributed for 10 points apiece for the Thunder. Joe Elias added four points. Angelo Cravatta, Cory Paciorkowski, and Jacob Elias rounded out the scoring for the Thunder with two points apiece.

Clippers 40    Nuggets 38

A duel between the Clippers (1-2) and Nuggets (0-3) was a close one throughout. The Clippers and the Nuggets combined for seven Different lead changes in the game. The Clippers were able to grab the last lead change and hang on for the 40 to 38 victory.

The Clippers were led by a trio of scorers, Christopher Handy, Derek Bauer and Maximilian Harison and their 10 points apiece. Brendon Kaspiak netted six points. Evan Mueller's four points helped out the cause in the Clippers victory.

The Nuggets Riley Quinn led all scored with 12 points. Derek Walter scored 10 points. Bailey Moskal torched the nets with six points. Steven Blatto added three points. Jeffrey Burgess and James Szymanski's two points apiece just wasn't enough in the Nuggets defeat.

Bulls 46    Bobcats 37

In the third Boys Midget Conference game the Bulls (1-2) knocked off the Bobcats (0-3). The Bulls built on their 18-15 halftime lead. The Bulls used a strong offensive effort scoring 28 second half points to defeat the Bobcats 46 to 37.

Seamus Furlong led the offensive scoring attack with 20 points. Nicholas Barberio and Mitchell Klima each connected for 10 points. Mitchell Marcezin tallied four points. Daniel Christopher netted two points in the Bulls win.

Trevor Reformat's 21 points led all scorers for the Bobcats. Alan Au threw in eight points. Ethan Moore added six points. Anthony Manhard added two points in the Bobcats loss.

Blazers 38    Braves 31

The Blazers(3-0) continued their hot start to the season with a victory over the unbeaten Braves (2-1). With the victory the Blazers grabbed sole possession of first place of the Eastern Division. The Blazers used a great offensive effort to topple the Braves 38-31.

Aiden Zerkowski blazed the scoring trail with 17 big points. Branden Kostek scored 11 points. Justin Hughes solid ball control and 10 points was vital in holding off the Braves.

The Braves were led by Gianluca Fulciniti's 11 points. Owen Adamec had six points. Nicholas Weldon and Jacob Kaska shared eight points. Dominic Fulciniti, Josh Conklin and Will Kocialski chipped in with two points apiece in the Braves first loss of the season.